

February 1 Safari—journey—with us in prayer to Tanzania, home to abundant wildlife and natural resources. Despite its natural beauty, we need to pray for light to flood the spiritually dark places. (John 8:12; 12:46)

February 2 Many tribes in Tanzania practice witchcraft and teenage male and female circumcision. Would you stand in the gap for these people who desperately need truth and transformation? (Ezekiel 22:30)

February 3 Haki leads our Tanzania staff and he is passionate about prayer. Pray with him for revitalized commitment in the training programs and locally-sustained fellowships among the least-reached. (Philippians 4:9)

February 4 In Tanzania, 6.2 million people in 24 people groups are living without the saving knowledge of Jesus. Please pray for revival in the church and a renewed desire to accomplish the Great Commission. (Acts 1:8)

February 5 Almost 1.5 million Zaramo people in Tanzania need freedom from fears that hold them captive as they mix Islam with tribal customs. Pray for God's Spirit to permeate their communities and bring freedom. (1 John 4:17-18)

February 6 Sister Julia serves Tanzania, Kenya, and Uganda as Admin Assistant and Data Manager. Pray for her work/life balance and adjustment as she returns this month from maternity leave and a new baby. (Proverbs 31:25-31)

February 7 Our Exec Director Andre, and Administrator, Jolene, are in Winnipeg for the weekend at Missionfest Manitoba. Join us on this First Friday in praying for much interest in GDC from individuals and especially church leaders. (Acts 6:7)

February 8 This afternoon, Dave, our prayer leader, is at a church near Armstrong, BC, to do a seminar on prayer and spiritual warfare. Please pray for a powerful equipping time with no distractions. (Ephesians 6:10-12)

February 9 After preaching at Cities Church in Brandon, MB, Andre leaves for a long journey to Nepal. He will travel with two of our supporters and connect with the GD leaders in Nepal. Pray for health and safety and for God to work powerfully through Andre. (Acts 1:8)

February 10 Tanzanian Christians often greet each other with Tumaini letu—meaning "He is our Hope." Pray for Christians to share the hope of Jesus among the many who battle depression and hopelessness. (2 Thessalonians 2:15-17)

February 11 Prayercast.com encourages us to pray for Bible storytelling in peoples' heart languages. Let us join others in praying for the Bible to be accessible for all Tanzanians! (Acts 2:6-12, 38-39)

February 12 There are no known Christ-followers among the 748,000 Shirazi people, and many Shirazi live in poverty. Pray for outreach and ministry efforts that demonstrate our Father's power and provision. (Matthew 6:26, 33)

February 13 Faith, Jolene and Dave will be at Chilliwack, BC, for Missions Fest BC. We pray for many good contacts for GDC. Randy Friesen, our VP of Leadership, is speaking at a main session - 'Follow Me and I will make you Fishers Of Men'. (Matthew 9:37-38)

February 14 Global Disciples recently held a V3 (vision, values, vitality) conference for program directors and their spouses in Tanzania. Pray that these couples will practice what they learned and pass it on to others. (1 Corinthians 13:4-8)

February 15 Please keep Andre in your prayers as his time in Nepal comes to a close and he returns home next week. We pray for Andre's health and safety in travel and the blessing of God upon his family. (2 Thessalonians 3:13)

February 16 Trained, mature leaders are needed to shepherd well and teach sound doctrine in the Tanzanian church. Pray for growth and effectiveness of our Leadership Equipping programs. (Titus 2:1-8)

February 17 In Tanzania's maritime culture, many people place their trust and also their fear in the natural world. Jesus, please reveal Yourself as the One who holds power over both winds and waves. (Matthew 8:24-27)

February 18 Facilitator Rashid supports and encourages program directors and church cluster leaders in the coastal region, and the islands of Mafia and Zanzibar. Pray that disciple-makers and fellowships multiply! (Hebrews 13:17)

February 19 Many of Tanzania's 66,000 Alagwa people believe they are descendants of Ham or Canaan, living out Noah's curse on this son. Pray for a movement to Jesus among this unreached Muslim people group. (Genesis 9:24-27)

February 20 Someone shared Jesus with Bakari over 30 years ago. He became a pastor and has recently joined us as a Tanzania Facilitator. Pray for him to model Christ well as he oversees program directors. (Ephesians 5:1-2)

February 21 Please pray for our Tanzania team to be good stewards of what God has entrusted to them. May their time, talents, and treasure be fully devoted to the LORD and His priorities. (1 Corinthians 15:58)

February 22 Let us ask God to raise a new generation in Tanzania who will proclaim the true Gospel with Spirit-led passion and commitment. May their worship draw others to our wonderful Savior. (Psalm 145:3-7)

February 23 Today in Abbotsford, BC, Central Heights Church are holding their Mission Sunday. Faith and Dave are in support to talk to interested people at the book table. Pray for God to give people a heart for reaching the least-reached with the good news. (Acts 6:4)

February 24 We bring our Tanzania Small Business Development programs to the LORD in prayer, asking Him to bless the training, multiply church planters, and prosper the work of their hands. (Proverbs 3:9-10)

February 25 As Amani and Thimba carry out their Facilitator responsibilities, pray for protection over their minds and safety in their travels in areas of dark spiritual strongholds. (Psalm 91:1-6)

February 26 Most of Tanzania's 23,000 Segeju people are Muslims, living along the northern coast. They view Allah as distant from daily life. Pray for visions and dreams to guide them to Jesus, who draws near to them as Savior. (Revelation 3:20-21)

February 27 We commit into God's hands the two Annual Equipping Events next month in Tanzania. Father, please guide their plans and enable all to attend. We pray Your Spirit will move in these gatherings! (Proverbs 16:1-3)

February 28 For Muslims, Ramadan begins this evening. Let us pray together that they will know a genuine spiritual hunger during their fasting, and for opportunities for Gospel conversations with Christ-followers. (John 6:35)
